

Dance Reaches Youth Workshop

Do you teach youth in schools and after school programs?

Are you interested in teaching in schools?

Do you want to learn and share ideas
to help make your classes even better?

Sunday, OCTOBER 18TH @ BOSTON BALLET 3:00 - 5:30 PM
(19 Clarendon Street, Boston :: T Accessible)

Members - FREE

Non-Members - $15

Refreshments Included

Schedule of Events:

3:00 - 4:00 pm

Alice Hunter, expert in working with refugee and immigrant youth, will offer:

- What you need to know if your students do not speak English
- The ways that other cultures think about teaching and teachers and what they expect
- How dance is such an incredible tool for reaching youth who may have gaps in education and are just learning English and American navigation

4:00 – 5:30 pm

Share your best practices and discuss your challenges. Topics may include:

- Classroom management
- Communicating with School Administration
- Curriculum Design
- How do you get your students to think outside of “So You Think You Can Dance” material

Supported by The BPS Arts Expansion Fund

For more information call BDA 617.456.6295 Or email info@bostondancealliance.org

www.bostondancealliance.org/workshop

BOSTON DANCE ALLIANCE